Dear Frank:

Three weeks seems to be an awfully long time - no write. Ah - but believe me you have been with me in spirit. Did you ever have something you truthfully wanted to accomplish and find yourself continually feeling perfectly miserable 'cause you couldn't get yourself in the proper mood for tackling the situation? Such is the case. I shan't go into long mournful elucidations concerning the fact but instead I'll just pass it off by saying that you understand.

Honestly hon-don't feel forgotten. Gene D., Joe, and yourself can take any stand inthe matter and be perfectly justified in your actions. We're crumbs - and the worse part of it is that we know it only too well.

I haven't the time now to delve into the news which has surrounded we Flatbushers - but I will say that I wish my right arm were here with me now. Yep-you old goat- let out that band in your hat and take in a little more

*too bad
you
ever taught me that word.
It certainly is overworking*

flattery but for heavens sake don't let it show.

We're off to see your mom tonight and to get another glimpse of the Frank we have yet to know. Behave!

Until I can really get myself in the groove again I'll say au revoir with love.

P.S. This certainly was a lame attempt - but forgive it and say at least that - "Am' je thinking of me anyhow." (cela m'est égal?)

P.P.S. - note that I say "were crumba". I didn't have the heart to let myself take the punishment alone.

P.P.P.S. - Almost had the desire to tear this bloomin' thing up - hope - I won't! -
