Eugene F. Lovett, School Official

Connected With Bureau of Attendance 34 Years

Eugene F. Lovett for 34 years a district supervisor in the bureau of attendance, Board of Education, died yesterday at his home, 7204 6th Ave., after a long illness. He was 63. For 10 years prior to his illness he was in charge of District 35, with offices at Public School 134, 18th Ave. and E. 5th St.

Born in Brooklyn, he attended St. Francis Xavier College in Manhattan and also Mount St. Mary School at Emmettsburg, Md. He taught for several years at St. Francis Xavier and then became associated with the bureau of attendance. In recent years, in addition to his duties with the bureau of attendance, he served as a member of the lecture staff of the Fordham University School of Sociology and Social Service.

For many years he had been a member of the Catholic League of the bureau of attendance and of the 7th A. D. Democratic Organization.

The funeral will be held from his home Saturday, followed by a solemn mass of requiem at 10 a.m. in St. Ephrem's R. C. Church, 75th St. and Fort Hamilton Parkway. Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mary McAleese Lovett; six daughters, Elizabeth Lovett, of the bureau of attendance; Mrs. Madeline La Favre, Mrs. Sally Maher, Mrs. Marie Frank, Regina Lovett and Sister M. Alberta of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Order, stationed at St. Dominic's Convent, Oyster Bay; a son, Eugene F. Lovett Jr., a city fireman; a brother, John Lovett, and a sister, Mrs. Nora Dougherty.
